Date: March 6, 2019 County, State: Tillamook, Or 4:00 pm. I came home & MR. McKnight was waiting outside, near my apartment. and waited until I got my thinger dog out of my car and he followed me to my Apt. after I had told him no and he insisted on helping me by grabbing my bags out of my hands. I didn't let him in my house. He pressed me to give him information about his neighbor, retaining an attorney which he thought might involve him. This was after my working hours. He kept pressing me for information and I finally

I was returning home a trip to Central OR. seeing my family and Mr. McKnight was waiting for me in the dark and suddenly came up to me from behind in the dark & started me. He was crazed and talking about his neighbor again. He was highly agitated and was not making any sense. He told me he had been sitting on his bench in front of his Apt. telling me (2) men approached him stating he had his gun in hand but didn't respond to their question if he lived there

MR. McKnight began to untie my shoes wanting to rub my feet and again I told him to go home but he wouldn't respond to me - 7:30 pm
 2-17-19

5(A) Exhibit March 7, 2019

- Told him that I had to make a incident report with the company G.M.S. About him waving his gun in my face. He always carries this gun under his shirt. (Has a concealed weapons permit.) He went into a panic mode after I had told him there was a possibility that he may get an eviction notice from G.M.S. Mr. McKnight is the maintenance man and lives as a tenant in the same complex as I do. I am the manager of said complex. His demeanor changed to raising his voice and he became very agitated and angry with me that I had to file that gun incident with the company as manager ~~he~~ requested to. He was yelling at me and blaming me for reporting the incident. I felt immediately afraid of his level of anger towards me. On March 4th there was a similar outburst from John towards me demanding information about whether something was going to come against him personally (me) about the neighbor. He was bullying me. I was afraid of him.

5 (A1) Exhibit - He pulled his gun out of his holster while waving his gun in my face, saying you don't have to worry about my building because "I have it protected." I was afraid but knew I had to stay calm because of his erratic behaviors at that moment. I told him to put his gun away and not even think about using it on the property and it wasn't his responsibility to protect "his Building". I could smell alcohol on his breath because he was standing very close. I then tried to calm him and he did put his gun away under his shirt. He then asked to help me unload my car. I said no a couple of times and he would hear it. He went over and starting carrying my belongings into my house. He sat down and stayed in my house. Again I ask him (2) more times to leave and he wouldn't. To be continued to 5(A2) 7:30 pm
